

Raluca Niță is Head of Marketing and Communication, within the Strategy and Marketing Department of TransFonD. Raluca started her career in the company a year ago, and proved a very high level of knowledge with regard to the financial market, as well as the proper strategies, having a great capacity in understanding highly innovative services, such as the ones developed by TransFonD.

Raluca graduated the Commerce and Marketing Department at the Academy of Economic Studies, followed by a Master in Marketing and Business Communication. Prior to her current position, she was Marketing Manager with De Groot I.R.S. in Bucharest.