

Romania

Dan Badin

Director – Tax

Telephone: +40 21 202 8757, Mobile: +40 742 39 4238

E-mail: dan.badin@ro.pwc.com

Office

Bucharest, Romania

Key areas of financial services expertise

Dan Badin has over 10 years of professional experience, specializing in Romanian Corporate Taxation and he is currently the leader of the Financial Service practice in the Tax Department of PwC Romania.

Dan Badin holds a Bachelor in Finance and Banking degree from the Academy of Economic Studies in Bucharest, Romania, and a post-graduate degree in Banking Management. He is also qualified as a tax consultant under Romanian law and is a member of International Fiscal Association.

Dan Badin has been working with PricewaterhouseCoopers Romania since 2002 and was recently promoted to Tax Director. Dan is actively involved in taxation advice on various aspects of investments in Romania. He specialized in providing tax assistance to clients in the Financial Services and Telecom industries. He was involved in various difficult tax projects in banking industry, such as domestic or cross-border reorganisations, implementation of new financial instruments, assignment of loan portfolios, etc.

Languages

Romanian, English