

Vlad Cristutiu, Charisma Enterprise Product Manager

He has led, since the beginning, for more than 8 years, the development and technical support team of Charisma Enterprise (over 120 people) being actively involved in the drawing up of product development strategy. He set the foundation of working procedures for the team Charisma Enterprise and was constantly involved in all international leads.

Since June 2006, he has taken over the Product Manager position being in charge, among other things, of the department coordination and implementation of financial services.